ReEnergy Group plc

("ReEnergy" or the "Company")

Statement re suspension

The Board of the Company announces that, pursuant to rule 15 of the AIM Rules for Companies ("AIM Rules"), the Company's ordinary shares will be suspended from trading on AIM with effect from 7 a.m., on 31 July 2009 as the Company has been unable to implement its investing strategy by 30 July 2009, this being the anniversary of the Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company at which shareholders gave consent to the Company's investing strategy.

The Company structure has recently been changed and the new board of directors are actively pursuing acquisition opportunities for the Company and will make further announcements where appropriate.

Under rule 41 of the AIM Rules, ReEnergy has until 31 January 2010 to complete an acquisition or investment that constitutes a reverse takeover under the AIM Rules in line with the Company's previously announced investment strategy. In the event that such an acquisition is not been made by the Company by 31 January 2010 trading in the Company's shares on AIM will be cancelled.
